1 2 3	(2)	The motion for transfer to a tribal court must include the following information:
4 5		(A) Whether the child is a tribal member or eligible for tribal membership;
6 7 8 9		(B) Whether one or both of the child's parents are tribal members or eligible for tribal membership;
10 11 12		(C) Whether one or both of the child's parents live on tribal lands or in tribal housing, work for the tribe, or receive tribal benefits or services;
12 13 14 15		(D) Whether there are other children of the obligor subject to child support obligations;
16 17		(E) Any other factor supporting the child's or parents' connection to the tribe.
18 19 20 21	(3)	When ruling on a motion to transfer, the superior court must first make a threshold determination that concurrent jurisdiction exists. Evidence to support this determination may include:
22 23 24		(A) Evidence contained within the motion for transfer;
24 25 26		(B) Evidence agreed to by stipulation of the parties; and
20 27 28		(C) Other evidence submitted by the parties or by the tribe.
29 30		The court may request that the tribal child support agency or the tribal court submit information concerning the tribe's jurisdiction.
31 32 33 24	(4)	There is a presumption of concurrent jurisdiction if the child is a tribal member or eligible for tribal membership. If concurrent jurisdiction is found
34 35 36		to exist, the transfer to tribal court will occur unless a party has objected in a timely manner within 20 days after service of notice of the right to object referenced in subdivision (e)(1) above. On the filing of a timely objection to
37 38 39		the transfer, the superior court must conduct a hearing on the record considering all the relevant factors set forth in (f). The objecting party has the burden of proof to establish good cause not to transfer to tribal court.
40 41 42	(Sub	d (e) amended effective January 1, 2018.)

1	(f)	Evid	entiary considerations
2 3 4 5		(1)	In making a determination on the application motion for case transfer, the superior court must consider:
5 6 7			(1) The nature of the action;
, 8 9			(2) The interests of the parties;
10 11			(3)(A) The identities of the parties;
12 13			(4)(B) The convenience of the parties and witnesses;
14 15			(5) Whether state or tribal law will apply;
16 17			(6)(C) The remedy available in the superior court or tribal court; and
18 19			(7)(D) Any other factors deemed necessary by the superior court.
20 21 22		(2)	In making a determination on the motion for case transfer, the superior court may not consider the perceived adequacy of tribal justice systems.
23 24 25 26 27		(3)	The superior court may, after notice to all parties, attempt to resolve any procedural issues by contacting the tribal court concerning a motion to transfer. The superior court must allow the parties to participate in, and must prepare a record of, any communication made with the tribal court judge.
28 29		(Subc	l (f) amended effective January 1, 2018.)

5 6 7 8		transferred to the tribal court. (Subd (h) amended effective January 1, 2018.)
9	(i)	Tran	nsfer of proceedings from tribal court
10 11 12 13 14 15		(1)	If a tribal court determines that it is not in the best interest of the child or the parties for the tribal court to retain jurisdiction of a child support case, the tribe may, upon noticed motion to all parties and the state child support agency, file a motion with the superior court to transfer the case to the jurisdiction of the superior court along with copies of the tribal court's order
16 17 18		(2)	transferring jurisdiction and the entire file. The superior court must notify the tribal court upon receipt of the materials
19		(2)	and the date scheduled for the hearing of the motion to transfer.
20 21		(3)	If the superior court has concurrent jurisdiction, it must not reject the case.
22 23 24		(4)	No filing fee may be charged for the transfer of a title IV-D child support case from a tribal court.

Rule	e 5.655. Program requirements for Court Appointed Special Advocate programs
(a)	General provisions
	(1) A Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) program is a child advocacy program that recruits, screens, selects, trains, supervises, and supports lay volunteers for appointment by the court to help define the best interest of children and nonminors under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court, including the dependency and delinquency courts.
	(2) To be authorized to serve children and nonminors in a county, the CASA program must be designated by the presiding judge of the juvenile court.
	(3) A CASA program must comply with this rule to be eligible to receive Judicial Council funding. The Judicial Council may consider compliance with the guidelines delineated in the CASA Program Policies and Procedures Manual when determining eligibility for and amount of program funding.
	(Subd (a) amended effective January 1, 2018; adopted effective January 1, 2005.)
(b)	Definitions

17		(1) The	court's designation of the CASA program must take the form of a
18			orandum of understanding (MOU) between the CASA program and the
19			gnating court.
21		(A)	The MOU must state that the relationship between the CASA program
22			and the designating court can be terminated for convenience by either the
23			CASA program or the designating court.
24
25		(B)	A CASA program may serve children and nonminors in more than one
26			court if the program executes an MOU with each court.
27
28		(C)	The CASA program and the designating court must be the only parties to
29			the MOU.
30
31		(D)	The MOU must indicate when and how the CASA program will have
32			access to the juvenile case file and the nonminor dependent court file if
33			applicable.
34
35			ASA program must function as a nonprofit organization or under the
36			ices of a public agency or nonprofit organization, and must adopt and

33 34		(3) Selection of a permanent plan (§ 727.3(b))
35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42		At the first permanency planning hearing, the court must select a permanent plan. At subsequent permanency planning hearings that must be held under section 727.2(g) and rule 5.810(c), the court must either make a finding that the current permanent plan is appropriate or select a different permanent plan, including returning the child home, if appropriate. The court must choose from one of the following permanent plans, listed in section 727.3(b) which are, in order of priority:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	(A) A permanent plan that immediately returns the child to the physical custody of the parent or guardian. This plan must be the permanent plan unless no reunification services were offered under section 727.2(b), or unless the court finds that the probation department has established by a preponderance of evidence that return would create a substantial risk of detriment to the safety, protection, or physical or emotional well being of the ward. The probation department has the burden of establishing that detriment. In making its determination, the court must review and consider all reports submitted to the court and must consider the efforts or progress, or both, demonstrated by the child and family and the extent to which the child availed himself or herself of the services provided.
14	(B) A permanent plan of return of the child to the physical custody of the
15	parent or guardian, after 6 additional months of reunification services.
16	The court may not order this plan unless the court finds that there is a
17	substantial probability that the child will be able to return home within
18	18 months of the date of initial removal or that reasonable services
19	have not been provided to the parent or guardian.
20
21	(C) A permanent plan of adoption. When this plan is identified, the court
22	must order that a hearing under section 727.31 be held within 120 days.
23	5
24	(D) A permanent plan of legal guardianship. When this plan is ordered, the
25	court must set a hearing under the procedures described in section 728
26	and rule 5.815.
20
28	(E) A norman ant plan of placement with a fit and willing polative When
	(E) A permanent plan of placement with a fit and willing relative. When
29	this plan is ordered, the court must specify that the child will be placed
30	with the appropriate relative on a permanent basis.
31
32	(F) A permanent plan of placement in a planned permanent living
33	arrangement. The court may order this permanent plan only after
34	considering, and ruling out, each of the other permanent plan options
35	listed above. If, after doing so, the court concludes that a planned
36	permanent living arrangement is the most appropriate permanent plan
37	for the child, it must also enter a finding, by clear and convincing
38	evidence, that there is a compelling reason, as defined in section
39	727.3(c), for determining that a plan of termination of parental rights
40	and adoption is not in the best interest of the child. When a planned
41	permanent living arrangement is ordered, the court must specify the
42	type of placement. The court must also specify the goal of the
43	placement, which may include, but is not limited to, a goal of the child
44	returning home, emancipation, guardianship, or permanent placement
45	with a relative.
