Associates

Guest Speaker

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Join Sacramento LPA for a practical look at personal injury litigation from the plaintiff's perspective. Attorney Jeff Hinrichsen will discuss the progression of a personal injury matter, key considerations in developing and presenting a plaintiff's case, and the important role the entire legal team plays along the way. From case intake and investigation through discovery, damages, settlement discussions, and litigation, this program will offer insight into the strategy, preparation, and teamwork involved in effectively representing an injured client.

This presentation is approved for California Minimum Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) credit in the amount of 1.0 credit hour and approved for CCLS recertification credit in the amount of 1.0 hour.
